

SportRoots Services Private Limited

04-Nov-2025

Dear C Safalya,

Sub: Internship Offer

On behalf of SportRoots, I am pleased to extend to you this offer of temporary internship with our organization.

With the acceptance of this offer, you will begin your internship with SportRoots on 4th November 2025 and will be required to work as an Intern for a duration of 3 months. Upon successful completion of the internship, the management may decide to continue, extend, or revise the internship arrangement based on performance and project requirements.

Please note that this internship is unpaid, and no monetary compensation shall be provided during the tenure. However, you will gain valuable exposure to real-world project execution, teamwork, and professional development through your contribution to SportRoots initiatives.

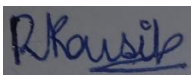

As an intern, you will receive “temporary internship” status. During your internship, you may have access to trade secrets and confidential information belonging to SportRoots. By accepting this offer, you agree to maintain strict confidentiality and refrain from disclosing or using any such information for personal or external purposes. Upon completion or termination of your internship, you must return all company property, including documents, files, and any electronic materials.

By accepting this offer, you agree to adhere to all policies, ethical standards, and professional conduct guidelines of SportRoots. This letter constitutes the full and complete internship offer and supersedes any prior discussions or representations.

We look forward to your positive contribution to the SportRoots team and are confident that this experience will be mutually rewarding.

With Best Wishes,

For SportRoots

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'R. Kousik', is placed over a grey rectangular background.

R. Kousik
Founder – SportRoots